

Check File

Use the Check File feature to perform validation checks prior to E-filing, such as identifying non-OCR pages, Comments and Links so that they can be removed before filing. This feature should eliminate or greatly reduce other common errors identified during e-filing such as oversized files and other types of errors.